Grade 5 Newsletter

Week 10: November 03-07, 2024.

Message from the Grade 5 Team:

- ELA: "What is the power of the sun?" That is the big question we are exploring in this unit. To answer it, we are reading, writing, and talking about solar energy. Be a part of our exploration!
- Math: This week in our math lessons, we are diving into Chapter 3. Our focus will be on exploring various strategies used for dividing whole numbers.
- Science: This week, we will continue our exploration of matter, focusing on how it changes through physical and chemical transformations. Students will engage in activities and experiments to deepen their understanding of these processes. We encourage them to share their observations as we discover the dynamic nature of matter together!
